

Corporate Finance Associate – M&A – Healthcare

Results has established itself as one of the leading boutique mid-market banks in both the Healthcare and Technology sectors. Deal flow is strong and our team members are able to accelerate their careers through gaining experience at pace.

We are currently offering a great opportunity to join us in London at an experienced level in the Healthcare team to grow your career. One of our key success factors is our proven passion, enthusiasm, and drive to work in these exciting growth sectors. So being able to demonstrate an interest in and some experience of the life sciences sector will be all-important.

As an Associate you will immediately be working closely with a Director or MD and Partner in a deal team, responsible for supporting all elements of the deal process as well as managing work streams on your own. With significant client exposure and the need to develop relationships with all stakeholders, both internal and external, this role carries a high degree of responsibility towards deal success.

You'll hone your research, process and client-facing skills in understanding your sector fully; with a high level of attention to detail, financial and people skills alongside you'll fit seamlessly into the team and your priority will be to learn as much as possible from the talented people around you.

Many of our team members stay with us longer than the industry average. We pay particular attention to how you can develop both your career and your skill set. This boutique is not one to ensure you 'serve your time', it will move you along your career trajectory as quickly as you can progress.

Our culture is corporate finance with personality - we work to high standards but find time to have fun together too; social events (including the annual ski trip) are the norm. We are collaborative and collegiate and never compete internally; only externally and in pitches.

You'll ideally have some experience of working in M&A and be clear this is what you want to do in your career, or you might have some significant experience of working in a related field or the healthcare industry following academic study to post-graduate level in life sciences. It's also possible you are looking for a career side-step from a related field such as transaction services. Candidates are welcomed from both routes but either way you need to show an understanding of and enthusiasm for the healthcare sector. Entrepreneurial spirit is always a significant advantage in our firm.

So, if a big faceless investment bank is not for you, yet a career in corporate finance is, this is exactly your opportunity and you should apply right now with a tailored CV highlighting your experience match.

We look forward to receiving your application.
